

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL MINISTERS
OF SOUTHERN NEVADA

An appeal is being made to you concerning the local branch of the NAACP. I personally feel that as ministers, we should take an active step towards building the local branch in Southern Nevada. We have a very fine President, Mrs. Eleanor Walker, elected by the people, who is doing a fantastic job in leading the branch. Mrs Walker needs our support. We should be able to assist her in her work in the organization. I am pleading to you at this time, that we unite our efforts in supporting the President. An invitation will be coming to you in the very near future, asking that we meet at a designated place and try working out a solution to this problem. Fellow workers, the local branch of the NAACP of Southern Nevada can grow to be one of the largest and most progressive organizations in the world. Please help us in supporting our president and organization.

Thank you.

Your fellow Minister with an interest in the NAACP.

Eld. Joseph Prudhomme, II
Chairman NAACP Church Work Committee
