Dazzling Diana Ross at Caesars Palace

Diana Ross, the dazzling, definitive superstar of films, recordings, concert and cabaret, headlines at Caesars Palace, Thursday, May 6, through Wednesday, May 19.

The engagement marks Diana's first United States appearance since the conclusion of her recent smash European tour which climaxed at the New Victoria Theatre that had all of London at her feet.

The European and British press were unanimous in their praise, exclaiming that they had never anticipated so lavish a production with such effective theatrical staging and costuming.

With a Diana Ross performance no one knows what to expect. Just when you begin to anticipate Diana comes up with the startling and the sensational.

The production that she brings to Caesars Palace is a blockbuster, a tour de force, a delight on the eyes, ears, and imagination.

The material is totally new from top to bottom and was conceived and staged by Joe Layton.

Kool and the Gang give one of their most unforgettable performances with their renditions of "Love and Understanding" and "Sugar." These versatile instrumentalists will be remembered for earlier releases, "Funky Man," "Let The Music Take Your Mind," and "Higher Plane," all written, arranged and produced by the group.
