Foster Grandparent of the Year

Mrs. Effie Guice receives a plaque naming her Foster Grandparent of the year from J. David Hoggard, Executive Director of the Economic Opportunity Board. Mrs. Guice was selected to receive the annual award by her fellow Foster Grandparents. The Foster Grandparent Program is one of the Senior Citizen programs administered by the EOB. Funded through ACTION, a federal agency, the program provides opportunities for people 60 years of age and older to supplement their incomes while providing service to the community by working with children in need of special care.

Judge Miller Files for J.P.

The only incumbent Judge in the race for Las Vegas Justice of the Peace, Robert Miller, has formally filed for re-election.

Judge Miller, who was unanimously appointed to the Justice of the Peace position in 1975, has fast gained a reputation as being one of the hardest working jurists ever to hold the job. During his year in office, Miller has presided over literally hundreds of preliminary hearings and misdemeanor trials.

He has been an instigator of several court
