Drug Abuse Youth Program

The Southern Nevada Drug Abuse Council (SNDAC) is accepting bids from qualified non-profit groups or organizations interested in providing out-patient treatment services for west side youthful drug abusers.

Zel Lowman, SNDAC Board President, in announcing the SNDAC program for bid, explained that these services are currently being provided by the Fitzsimmons Board, under contract for SNDAC. The Frank E. Fitzsimmons Adult Residential House has recently enlarged its patient load and needs to devote full time to that program.

Lowman explained that SNDAC is the umbrella agency under which prevention treatment and rehabilitation drug and alcohol abuse services are offered to Southern Nevada Communities. "With the exception of the SNDAC Drug Abuse Clinic and the newly created Central Intake program," Lowman added, "Each of the groups contract with SNDAC for funding and program management."

"Bids with proposals for the new youth program," he continued, "will be accepted until Aug. 1, 1976. They must be sent to SNDAC, Suite H-216, 900 E. Karen Ave., Las Vegas, Nev. 89109. Additional information is available by calling: 731-1705."
