THE COMMODORES AND GEORGE McCREA are in the spotlight this weekend on Soul Train, television's weekly musical dance show. One of Motown's most popular groups, the Commodores perform "Sweet Love" from their latest album, "Movin' On," as well as "Slippery When Wet," a cut from their second album, "Caught in the Act," and "Free." Up and coming musical personality, George McCrea, sings his current hit, "Honey, I," which is moving up on the record charts, and "I Ain't Lyin'."

Mathis & Mancini at Aladdin

Johnny Mathis and Henry Mancini took over center stage at the Aladdin's Theater for the Performing Arts for two nights last week.

Opening the show was Mancini and his orchestra. Many of the tunes featured were from the orchestra's new L.P. "Soul Symphony." The orchestra went from disco to "Mancini classics" Closing his portion of the show, Mancini led the orchestra doing "Moon River."

Johnny Mathis captured the audience with his smooth movements and velvet voice. Mathis sang such favorites as "Misty" "One Day in Your Life." He also sang his latest single, "Yellow Roses on Her Gown." A medley from Westside Story concluded the singer's portion of the program. "Maria" was his final song.
