Bowden Heads Study On Black Church

Using funds from a $250,000 Andrew Mellon Foundation grant to the School of Religion, Howard University will sponsor a major study of the black church.

Dr. Lovenger Bowden, Professor of Speech and principal investigator of the study, says, "The black church has long been a popular subject for writers and thinkers, but scientific documentation of its characteristics and contributions has been lacking.

Background information has already convinced her, she says, that the black church is the only black institution which "started in the African forests, survived slavery and remains the most viable organization of the black community in the United States."

The study is in two phases. Phase I, a preliminary study of the metropolitan area of Washington, D.C., already underway, will serve as a prototype. Its findings will be announced next month. Phase II, a major study conducted in selected areas of the United States, will extend from August, 1976 to June, 1977.

First plant four rows of peas:
P-reservation -
P-reparedness -
P-erseverance -
P-romptness -

Then plant three rows of lettuce:
Let us be faithful -
Let us obey rules and regulations -
Let us love one another -

Then plant three rows of squash:
Squash all gossip -
Squash criticism -
Squash indifference -

Since no garden is complete without turnips:
Turn up for church services -
Turn up with a smile -
Turn up with determination to make everything you do count for the Lord.
