NBA Summer Championship

NEW YORK - The Converse Streakers have won the Robert Douglas Professional Basketball 1976 Summer championship in which top-NBA players, participate gratis, as capacity crowds watched two last-minute thrillers.

In the first semi-final the Douglas Rens Topped the Passport Scots 122-121, in the last two seconds of play. Harthorne Wingo, of the New York Knicks, registered 27 winning points while Larry Fogle, who reports to the Knicks training camp in September, scored 39 for Passport. In the other semi-final, Converse beat the Lord Calvert Superstars, despite 21 points from Billy Paultz, of the Lord Calvert Team and of the San Antonio Spurs in the NBA. Then, in the championship tussle Converse held on to edge out Douglas Rens, 133-128 on the strength of 33 points from Charlie Criss.

NELLIS AFB, - "I'm really proud of my kids," beamed Nellis Youth Bowling Coach Gwen Nadeau. She grinned as she explained that of the more than 1,100 youngsters who competed in the recent Nevada Junior Bowling Tournaments, eight of her 22 entries won trophies.
