Jermaine Jackson makes his debut on Soul Train as a solo act this weekend, sharing center stage with female vocalist Tata Vega.

Former lead singer and bass player with the internationally acclaimed musical family, The Jackson 5, Jermaine, now 22, has embarked upon a new career which he hopes will lead into writing, producing and, eventually, the business end of the industry.

His unique style and vocal depth are demonstrated on "Let's Be Young Tonight," "My Touch of Madness" and "Look Past My Life."

Although virtually unknown, Tata Vegas has been favorably compared with Chaka Kahn, Natalie Cole, Aretha Franklin and Gladys Knight.

A petite young woman, with a powerful voice, she showcases her vocal magnetism on her first single, "Full Speed Ahead," and "Never Had A Dream Come True."

Philadelphia International has released a special album by Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes featuring Teddy Pendergrass and Sharon Paige. This album entitled "Collector's Item" will prove to be one of the most unique offerings during this bicentennial period. Consisting of a selection of greatest hits recorded by the group prior to Teddy's departure, "Collector's Item" offers its listeners the opportunity to once again hear the distinct vocal blend that could only be achieved through years of close musical association. These cuts include "Wake Up Everybody," "I Miss You," "Bad Luck," "Hope That We Can Be Together Soon," "Where Are All My Friends," "Be For Real," etc.

Harold Melvin and the Blue Notes are one of the few recording stars who have been able to maintain a high level of success in the ever-changing world of music. Part of this good fortune can be attributed to the group's association with Philadelphia International's musical giants, Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff, and arrangers such as Thom Bell, Norman Harris and Bobby Martin.

"Collector's Item," produced by Gamble and Huff is destined to continue the successful pattern of past Blue Notes' albums.

Woman' Begins fourth season on PBS

"Woman" begins its fourth season on PBS this fall. The controversial series, carried by more than 200 public television stations, is devoted to seeking new freedoms of expression for today's woman, emphasizing shared concerns while exploring the ideas, the issues, and actions that can affect and change their lives.

The weekly half hour, hosted by Sandra Elkins, begins Thursday, September 23 at 11 p.m. on TV-10! The first program, "Humor by Women," reflects what women are experiencing today.
