UN BOUGHT AND UN-BOSSED

Autumn Afternoon Modeling Show

The A. Philip Randolph Institute, Las Vegas Chapter, will host a "get out-the-vote" modeling show at 1220 Ralston Drive (Bonanza Village), Saturday, Oct. 9, 1976 at 2 p.m. until 6 p.m.

There will be music, songs, dancing and food. The purpose of this fund raising is to benefit "get-out-the-vote" drive and our youth educational fund.

Inspirational songs will be provided by our own Mr. Morris Chapman, Chapman, a native Las Vegas, is known by many for his spiritual lyrics. Music will be provided by Blue Diamond, direct from San Francisco, and this is a dynamic singing aggregation making their first appearance in the Las Vegas area.

Donations for the Modeling Show is $7.00. Donations include general membership to A. Philip Randolph Institute. Tickets may be purchased from any member; Odyssey Records, New Breed Fashions, Aladdin Theatre, Collins Beauty Supply House, Rev. Sam Roberson's Religious (supply store) Emporium, and the A. Philip Randolph Institute office.

The public is invited to come and spend an enjoyable afternoon with A. Philip Randolph Institute and their guests.

INTRODUCTION TO SPANISH

The Las Vegas Cultural Services Department, Recreation Division, announces an Introduction to Spanish Course is being held at the Hirabelli Teen Center at west Fremont & Jones Blvd. on Wednesdays from 9:30 till 11:00 a.m. for children 4 and 5 years of age. Pauline Alderete will introduce the children to a foreign language during this 6 week class starting Nov. 3. Registration will begin Oct. 18, and a maximum number of 20 will be accepted for this session.

For information call Stan Ervin at 386-6359 or stop at the center and pick up one of our activity schedules between 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m. Monday thru Friday.

SteamBoat to Air

Channel 10 will air two special films on Steamboats, an unusual subject in the middle of the desert. The first, "Steamboats on the Colorado" load the viewer on the deck of the steamers as they traveled the Colorado River from the Baja California entry to Rioville, Nevada, which is now under man-made Lake Mead. This program airs at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 21.

And then a look at Oregon's steamboats on "They Hailed a Steamboat Anyplace," following at 6 p.m. Oregon's historical documentary film on life on Oregon's Willamette River during the steamboat era will allow viewers to compare scenery and frontier-breaking in two western fronts, Nevada and Oregon.
