the good old days of radio

Once upon a time there was a medium so powerful that no one even noticed, or cared, that it didn't have pictures. It was called... Radiol!

It drew millions of Americans to it like a magnet. It altered the life-style of a nation, and brought the entire world into everyman's living room. It aroused, amused, informed, excited, and fascinated a generation bracketed two world wars. It was teacher, companion, confidante, clown and clergyman.

What it did, it did so well that people have come to know that the era from the 20's thru the 40's as "The Golden Years of Broadcasting." And now a special look back on those years will be presented in "The Good Old Days of Radio," airing Friday, Oct. 29 at 6 p.m. on Channel 10.

Radio played host to the greatest names in the entertainment industry: Benny, Cantor, Ed Wynn, Fanny Brice, W.C. Fields, Bergen and McCarthy, Bob Hope, and hundreds more.

HALLOWEEN PROMISES SAFER

Halloween promises to be safer this year for youngsters whose parents sign them up for the North Las Vegas Neighborhood Halloween Festival to be held on Oct. 29, and 30, at the North Las Vegas Neighborhood Center, 1638 N. Bruce Street. The children, on Oct. 29, will display any special Halloween poems for the poetry corner, and create a Halloween costume to wear on Saturday, Oct. 30, when they do their trick or treating on the premises of the center. This way with the parents bringing their treats to the center they will know exactly what their children are getting. The children will be surprised and really enjoy themselves and still have a safe Halloween.

Plans are being made for the annual "Grandma's House Bazaar" at the First Congregational Church, 1200 N. Eastern Ave., on Saturday, Nov. 6, 9 a.m. - 6 p.m.

The public is invited to attend this gala affair. Many clever gifts will be for sale at reasonable prices.

A large food booth will be selling those mouth-watering pastries, breads, rolls, candies, jams and jellies for take-out. Those who feel like eating a snack may visit Grandma's kitchen from 11 a.m. on.

This year a new department will offer good used winter clothing for men, women and children in many styles and sizes.

"Grandma's Bazaar"

The miniature buildings made and furnished by Betty Neiswender will be on display in Gudmundsson Hall all day. It is worth a drive across town just to see this clever collection.

HE BROUGHT THE RIGHT TO VOTE BACK TO THE PEOPLE.

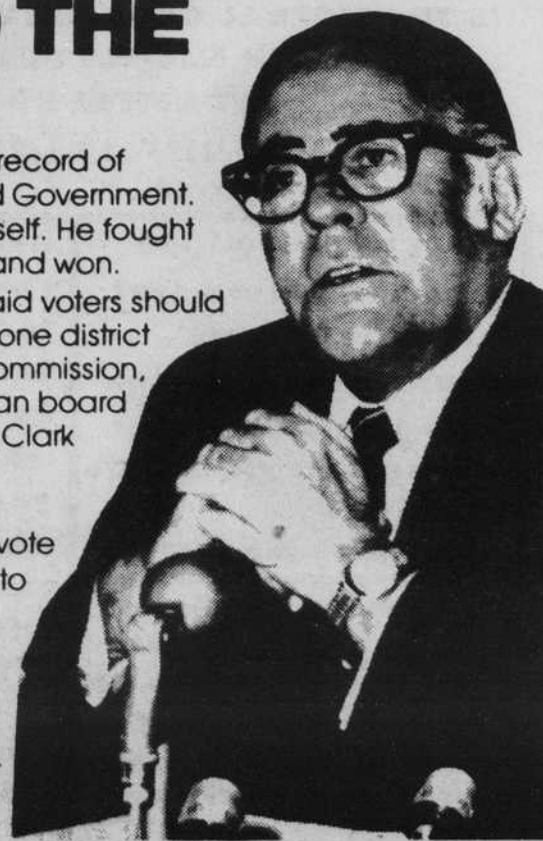

George Franklin Has a record of Fighting to maintain Good Government. A record that speaks for itself. He fought illegal consolidation . . . and won.

He fought those who said voters should only be allowed to select one district member of their county commission, even though the seven man board decided matters for all of Clark County.

He fought those who said the people's right to vote wasn't necessary in order to consolidate.

George Franklin.
Knowing and working to keep Good Government.

Elect Him County Commissioner. "He Brought the Vote Back to the People."
