APPOINTMENT OF RAY E. WILLIS TO KORK TV 3

Gene Spry, KORK-TV 3 General Manager has announced the appointment of Ray E. Willis to the position of News Director of KORK-TV.

The 29-year old Willis joined Donrey Broadcast Media Group in 1970 as a reporter-photographer at KFSA-TV in his hometown, Fort Smith, Arkansas. Two years later, Willis assumed reporting duties at KORK-TV in Las Vegas. Spry pointed out that for the past two years Willis has been in charge of the news assignment desk. "That position, coupled with Ray's media experience and education certainly qualify him for the News Director position," Spry said.

Willis' educational background includes two years at Rockford College, Rockford Illinois, later finishing up at Arkansas A.M.&N. College in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, where he received a B.A. Degree in English.

Willis is active in numerous local and state community affairs; currently serving on the Nevada Tourism Board by appointment of Governor Mike O'Callaghan. He is also a member of the advisory board to the UNLV Department of Communication Studies. Active in the Boy's Club, and a Board Member of the 1976 Miss Black Teenage World of Las Vegas Pageant.

According to Spry, Willis assumes his new duties immediately.

Ray is married, and has one child, an 8 month old daughter, named Allena. His wife, Sharon K. is a student at UNLV.
