ed people black on the job (Let's get dem off' a welfare).

The parenthesis are my own, but I cannot help remembering a sign on the door of a shop on third street in San Francisco's proud but black Bayview-Hunter's Point. It reads: If you can't dazzle then with brilliancy, then baffle then with b---- s-----! Let's hope we can get a President who is capable of talking, chewing gum and not afraid to walk down the Third Streets of this country.
