CAROL DOUGLAS

The Undisputed Truth, Carol Douglas and Impact combine to make this week-end's Soul Train show a memorable event.

Unique in costume and sould, The Undisputed Truth lead off with "You Plus Me Equals Love" and "Method To The Madness," the title song from their latest album.

Joe Harris, leader and founder of the group, describes the album's format as "a lot of rock overtones and spacey subject matter." Other group members are Calvin "Dhaak" Stephenson, Tyrone Barkley and Taka Boom, sister of Rufus' Chaka Khan.

Carol Douglas vocalizes on "Midnight Love Affair," her latest release.

A singer who has aspirations of becoming an actress, Douglas first gained musical attention when she recorded the hit tune, "Doctor's Orders." A product of the Quintaro School for Young Professionals where she was a classmate of Patti Duke, Douglas has appeared on Broadway in "Jazz Train," and off-Broadway with James Earl Jones and Cecily Tyson in "Moon on a Rainbow Shawl."

Impact, formed by former Temptation Damon Harris, reunites former members of the Vandals, a Baltimore-based group that began singing together in February, 1968. They exhibit their singing talents on "Give A Broken Heart A Break."

CHI-LITES

When the name Chi-Lites is mentioned, one thought pops into your mind -- a seemingly endless string of R&B hits, many of which have gone on to mass acceptance in the pop charts as well.

It is impossible to even quessimate how many records the group has sold worldwide, because, for example, the Chi-Lites are a massive group in England and the rest of the European continent. And the success is going to continue based on their debut album on Mercury Records, "Happy Being Lonely."

The group is composed of: Marshall Thompson, who handles most of the lead vocals, Aaron Floyd, Danny Johnson, David Scott, and Robert Lester. As a vocal group, they have no peers, as witnessed by such hits as "Oh Girl," "Have You Seen Her," "(For God's Sake) Give More Power To The People," "A Letter To Myself" and "Stoned Out of My Mind," all Top 5 on the R&B charts as well as pop hits. Two albums are also gold, "A Lonely Man" and "(For God's Sake) Give More Power To The People," in all, the group has had 17 Top 20 R&B singles since 1969, a record that stands against anyone.

Marshall is the leader of the group, and has been with them from the beginning. He has seen the group rise from struggling chart contenders to headlining appearances around the world. In fact, as a result of several British tours, the Chi-Lites are as big in England as they are in the U.S.

The other members of the group come from diverse backgrounds, including Aaron Floyd, who enjoyed several R&B hits when he was with the Artistics in the mid-1960's, and David Scott who came to the Chi-Lites after being with the South Shore Commission and the Rotary Connection.

The Chi-Lites sound, characterized by the falsetto lead voice and the harmony vocals, has influenced many recent soul groups, notably the Stylistics.

The Chi-Lites (yes, they're from Chicago, if you hadn't already guessed) are constantly on the road, and have a British tour upcoming in November.

Needless to say, the Chi-Lites, premier hit-makers for seven years, are just going to keep it up.
