78-67 HOME OPENER FOR REBELS

A sellout crowd watched the Rebels claw their way to victory over Oregon. UNLV had all they could handle but they did come out victors. The Rebels were ahead for a while but got blocked out quickly. But finally they were on top again at half-time (34-24). Robert Smith and Reggis Theus made the difference with nine of 11 and 13 of 16 free throws combined. After a game with the Rebels you feel you have fought the battle, it gets so intense. They are a good bunch.
