Your Doorman May Be Star Of Unusual Show In Bahamas

Paradise Island, Bahamas -- Cooks, waiters, busboys and doormen are stars of an unusual weekly show at a hotel here.

The employees perform in "Yes I Can," a revue at the Holiday Inn resort hotel that explores the music and dance culture of the Bahamas. Its authenticity is assured by the fact that its performers are not professional entertainers, but highly talented amateurs who knowledge of their material was learned in childhood.

The cast members are paid for their performances by points, which are equivalent to dollars. This "money" is then transferred to an employees benefit fund, from which individuals may receive loans or grants on merit.

Cy Roberts, entertainment director at the hotel, considers the show to be both enchanting for vacationers as well as a positive factor in bringing genuine Bahamian culture to American, Canadian and European visitors. He also thinks it contributes to a closer relationship between hotel management and employees.

"Monkey Hustle" Opens Dec. 24 Nationwide

American International Picture's fast-paced comedy, "Monkey Hustle," goes into national release on Christmas eve, Dec. 24.

A light-hearted look at a different facet of ghetto life, the film stars Yaphet Kotto, Rudy Ray Moore, Rosalind Cash and Kirk Calloway.

Filled with vignettes of life in the teeming inner-city, the story concerns itself with the fight of the area's residents against the proposed encroachment of a freeway and their successful attempts to thwart the bureaucracy.

The main opponents of the freeway are the street hustlers, who realize that the destruction of the buildings and subsequent exodus of the residents will leave them without a turf -- or victims.

COMING ATTRACTIONS

THE KENNY BURRELL QUINTET will be the new attraction at the New Town Tavern, 600 Jackson, December 12 from 10:00 - until? A special guest on the show will be Jerome Richardson. This should be a dynamic show.
