The purpose of this semi-annual assembly, is to strengthen spiritually those who attend. The complex problems facing mankind today in many cases destroys his spirituality. The Apostle Paul's words at Romans 12:1,2 set the theme for the meeting, where he admonished Christians of his day to be 'Rendering 'Sacred Service With Your Power of Reason.' Only by directive efforts such as this, can individuals continue in a Christian way of life.

One of the highlights of the two day meeting will be the public address: "Keep Seeking God's Kingdom." This admonition was given by the son of God when he was a man here on earth. It has proven to be a source of comfort to those who have heeded these words of Christ Jesus. Also for those of our day who are beset with the problems and pressures of modern living it will also be a source of true comfort. The words of Jesus at Matt. 6:30-33 makes this clear, when it mentions in part, to not be anxious and wonder what we are going to eat or drink or what we are going to wear, for the heavenly Father knows we have need of these things; Jesus then added "Keep on, then, seeking first the Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you." The Bible shows that this is the only true hope that mankind has.

The featured speaker for the convention will be William A. Tracy, District Overseer of Jehovah's Witnesses. Mr Tracy has served as a Missionary and Branch Representative in Guyana, South America. He has also traveled extensively in the United States serving at convention and visiting congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses.

The public is invited to attend free. No collections will be taken.
