BLACK MUSIC TAKES COMMAND IN 1976

Black music takes command as its freshness and verve continually generate, innovate and motivate. This year, in both music and dollars, has been an unprecedented series of triumphs. With its widest perspective ever, Black Music '76 radiates with a stellar cast of the world's greatest talent. The sparkling brilliance of Stevie Wonder's Songs In The Key Of Life garnered immediate and unlimited platinum status. Keeping right in stride, Earth Wind & Fire continued to burn at a torrid pace capturing double platinum for Spirit in addition to gold for the single "Get away". There is still no stopping Gratitude and one can only ask is this the best group in America?

Platinum and gold tell the story; a story of established superstars and new faces already bombarded with rightfully earned superlatives. While heavyweight likes of the Jacksons, the O' Jays, Spinners, Billy Paul, Isley Brothers, Diana Ross, LaBelle, Ohio Players, Aretha Franklin, Minnie Riperton, and Bobby Womack matured with each successive product, refreshing, and very often surprising musical statements, evolved from overnight success stories such as the Emotions, Silver Convention, Tyrone Davis, Natalie Cole, Deniece Williams, Brass Construction and Donna Summer. Chalk up number one singles for Johnny Taylor, the Manchattans, Sylvers, K. C. and the Sunshine Band and the Miracles.
