MARCIA ANN GILLESPIE
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF, ESSENCE MAGAZINE

New York, N.Y.—Edward Lewis, chairman of the board of ESSENCE Communications, Inc., announced today the appointments of Marcia Ann Gillespie and James Forsythe as vice presidents of the corporation.

Ms. Gillespie is the editor-in-chief of ESSENCE magazine and a member of the board of directors of ESSENCE Communications, Inc. She started with the Black women's magazine in November 1970 as managing editor and became its fourth editor-in-chief in May 1971. Prior to joining ESSENCE, Ms. Gillespie was with Time-Life Books as a researcher.

Mr. Forsythe has been circulation director of ESSENCE magazine since March 1972. He was formerly with Coles Communications as budgeting analyst. Mr. Forsythe also holds the office of membership chairman of the Fulfillment Management Association.

THE CLARK COUNTY HEALTH DISTRICT OPERATES SATELLITE CLINIC

The Clark County Health District is now operating a satellite clinic at 402 Jackson Street in the Cove Hotel to provide Early Screening Examinations for Title XIX recipients up to the age of 21. This examination includes a general physical along with vision and hearing screening and blood test. Referral service is provided if any abnormalities are observed.

The client must have a SAMI 25 form and bring it to the clinic at the time of the examination.

The clinic is open Monday through Friday from 12:30 to 4 p.m.

The public health nurse is also available to provide routine immunizations for polio, measles and D.P.T. No eligibility screening is required for the immunizations.

For more information call the Health District at 385-1291.

SOCIAL SCIENCE WINNER—Ninth grader Dracy Branigan poses with his first place entry, "Freedom to Worship," at the close of a social studies fair at Gibson Junior High last week. Young Branigan illustrated his theme with what is obviously an elaborate church, but there's one thing the camera can't show: the tiny church is just as complete inside as it is outside.

NEW SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS—Virginia "Brooks" Brewster (left) and Janet Sobel take the oath of office as members of the Clark County Board of School Trustees January 3 from Justice of the Peace Mahlon Brown III. Brewster takes the seat vacated six months ago by Bernice Moten, while Sobel defeated Glen Taylor to represent Henderson, Boulder City, Paradise Valley and outlying areas of the county. Both attended their first formal school board meeting January 13.

ALCOHOLISM COUNSELOR FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

Helen Hutchinson, Alcoholism counselor for Senior Citizens Program, will be available each Monday from 1 to 2 p.m. at Downstowers to answer questions and give information on the subject of alcohol abuse and alcoholism. All interested persons welcome.

E.O.B. can be contacted for transportation.
