The IMPRESSIONS

Cotillion recording artists, The "impressing" IMPRESSIONS recently enjoyed a fantastically successful engagement at the Troubadour in Los Angeles. The melodic sounds of the vocal group have established them as a veritable institution in the entertainment industry. Fred Cash, Sam Gooden, Reggie Torian and Nate Evans performed to a celebrity studded audience every night . . . proving that they are truly entertainers' entertainers! Some of the celebrities who enjoyed hearing hits of the past like "I'm So Proud" and "Your Precious Love", along with tunes from the IMPRESSIONS latest album It's About Time, were: The Pointer Sisters-Walter Jackson-Bobby Womack-Chaka Khan-Natalie Cole-The Temptations-Bloodstone-Atlantic recording artist, Dee Dee Bridwater of Wiz fame-Charlie Pride-Fred Williamson, movie idol-Don Cornelius, star and innovator of Soul Train, and a host of others. Opening night drew the elite of the press, radio and television industry, including: Editors of the trades, newspapers, and magazines; representatives from Sammy & Company, Midnight Special; NBC exec Stan Myles and Dick Griffey, promotor and talent coordinator; Vice President and General Manager of Atlantic Records, Bob Greenberg and Simo Doe of Atlantic's Artist Relations Department, were also on hand to see The Impressions receive a salute from Los Angeles businessmen presented by the executive director of the Interracial Council For Business Opportunities, Cleveland Neil.

Henry Allen, President of Cotillion Records and Vice President, Eddie Holland, flew in from New York to support The Impressions on their west coast tour.

The group's single release, "This Time", is currently riding high on the charts and the "New Sound" of The Impressions is destined to pave the way to a gold record and more respect from the industry to which they have dedicated their talents for the past 21 years!
