RUFUS

Super-charged Rufus, featuring dynamic lead singer, Chaka Khan, and trend-setting song stylists, The Impressions, team up on Soul Train this week-end along with comic Franklyn Ajaye who makes a cameo appearance.

Presenting three of their latest recordings, "Hollywood", "At Midnight", and "Earth Song".

Rufus demonstrates the style that catapulted them to almost instant popularity with their release of Stevie Wonder's "Tell Me Something Good" and Khan's "You've Got the Love". Both appeared on their initial album, RAGS TO RUFUS, and album and singles went gold.

The Impressions, training ground for such recording stars as Jerry Butler, Curtis Mayfield and Leroy Hutson, continue in their tradition of highpitched vocal harmonies on "This Time" and "You'll Never Find".

Now in their twentieth year, original Impressions' Fred Cash, and Sam Gooden have been joined by Reggie Torian and new lead singer Nate Evans, a former promoter.

Franklyn Ajaye, one of the newest comedians on the scene, has just completed his first live album, "Don't Smoke Dope, Fry Your Hair". He also appeared in two films last year, MGM's "Dandy, the All American Girl" and Universal's "Car Wash".

Soul Train is produced and hosted by Don Cornelius and sponsored by Johnson Products Co., the nation's largest black manufacturer of hair care products and cosmetics.
