A one man trio, singing, playing sax and the keyboards, Eddie exhibits super stars' talent. They marvel because the album is a varied one with the sounds of jazz, blues and electronic reggae.

WHO SAID?? -- Hmm!! How would they know that jazz is an art form that can only be appreciated by a cultural, not ethnic minority of the listening public? That unearthy conclusion was reached by a panel of experts, experts!, at Princeton U. The group was chaired by Benny Carter, the superb jazz arranger, composer and saxophonist in the world, so how could he join in on the false premise that jazz can only be appreciated by a "cultural" non ethnic minority. W.C. Handy, the "father of the Blues, the roots of all that jazz, was no Ivy Leaguer, but culture was probably something he grew in his backyard. Of yeah, Prof. Morroe Berger of Princeton's Afro-American Studies Program co-chaired the panel . . . GRAMBLING --- Grambling State University football coach Eddie Robinson has been selected to serve as head coach of the West squad for the 53rd Annual East-West Shrine Football Classic set for December at Palo Alto, Calif.

The selection of Robinson marks the first time that a black coach has served as head coach in the annual all-star classic. Last year Robinson served as an assistant coach for the West squad.

A 36-year veteran of the coaching profession, Robinson is the fourth winningest coach in the annals of college football. He trails only the late Pop Warner and Amos Alonzo Stagg and present Alabama coach Paul (Bear) Bryant in career wins. His 35-year record stands at 254-85-11.

Known for his ability to produce professional football players, over 200 former Eddie Robinson and Grambling players have played professional football in the United States and Canada.

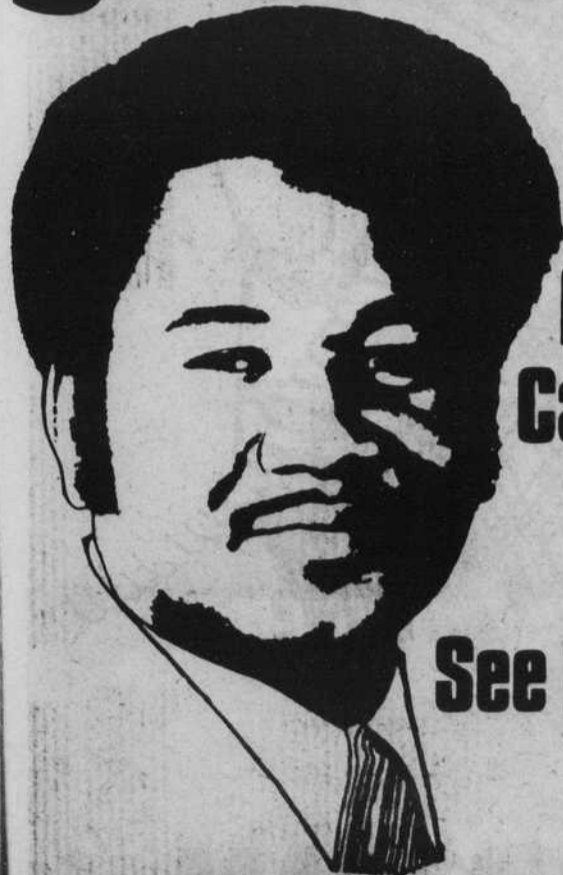

His teams at Grambling have compiled 17 straight winning seasons.

HARVEY WALLBANGER HELPS BLACK SKI SCENE '77 SLIDE FASTER
VAIL, COLO. -- Spring skiing in the Rockies this winter was considerably better than people thought. In fact, 350 Black skiers from across the nation had a rollicking good time at Vail last month (March 13-19) thanks to warm temperatures, good-to-excellent snow conditions and an ample supply of Galliano Harvey Wallbangers.

The cartoon character who appears whenever you pour Liguore Galliano into a screwdriver, was one of the toughest obstacles in a Fun Race held here recently. To complete the course, skiers had to step over a bale of hay while holding a Harvey Wallbanger doll. The race, and tastings held each night, were part of a week-long effort by "21" Brands to add fund and frolic to Black Ski Scene '77.

The participating skiers flew to Vail with their ski clubs from Los Angeles, San Francisco, Washington, D. C., Denver, Sacramento, Chicago, Detroit and New York.
