DINAH SHORE HONORED AT NAACP IMAGE AWARDS BANQUET

Dinah Shore star of the 90-minute DINAH! show, has been given the Founders Award of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Beverly Hills-Hollywood Branch at its 10th annual Image Awards banquet.

Presentation was made by Maggie Hathaway, President founder of the branch, at the banquet in the Century Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles.

In accepting the award before an audience of more than 2,000, Dinah said:

"Does this make me a Soul Sister? I'm really touched and delighted and very grateful to receive this award. I'm an entertainer and I am proud of our profession and we've come a long way. Someday we'll be able to sit down and laugh at this journey instead of the occasional tears getting here to this lovely point. But now that we're here I thank you for letting me be a part of this moment. I am filled with love and gratitude."

Sammy Davis Jr., master of ceremonies, pointed out to the gathering that long before it was the "in" thing to do, Dinah had fought for the rights of blacks and other minorities to perform on her television shows on an equal footing with the other guest stars.

DINAH! is syndicated nationally and internationally by 20th Century Fox Television.

'White Chocolate' will tempt the taste buds of jazz rock fans in a free concert at noon, Saturday May 21st, at Lorenzi Park, 3333 West Washington Avenue. For further information call 386-6211
