SOUL TRAIN

The Manhattans, Brass Construction and Rose Royce, whose voices were heard on the soundtrack of the recent film, Car Wash, entertain aboard Soul Train this weekend, television's popular musical showcase.

The Brass Construction, one of the hottest disco bands on the scene, perform 'What's On Your Mind' and 'Get To The Point.'

The group has been a unit since junior high school days in Brooklyn's East New York/Brownsville section. In 1976 they swept the Record World awards by being named No. 1 Top New Jazz Group, No. 1 Top Instrumental Group (Disco), No. 3 Top New Instrumental Group and Outstanding New Performers (Disco).

The Manhattans, a smooth-singing quintet which first came to prominence with 'I Wanna Be Your Everything,' score with 'I Kinda Miss You' and 'Kiss and Say Goodbye.'

Up and coming Rose Royce sing their hit rendition of 'Car Wash,' from the picture of the same name. Eight men and lead vocalist, Gwen 'Rose' Dickey, the latest addition to the group formerly known as A Total Concept, are the artists making the rise to stardom.

FLIP WILSON RETURNS TO PERSONAL APPEARANCES WITH TWO WEEK ENGAGEMENT AT CAESARS PALACE

Flip Wilson will star at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas Thursday, August 4, through Wednesday, August 17. The two week engagement marks the comedian's return to cabaret and personal appearances after a period of close to nine years.

The personable Wilson is one of television's all-time most popular stars and with the exception of several television specials, has been writing and reflecting since his long-running series took leave of the air. The Caesars Palace date will be his first in night clubs in many years.

Flip and Caesars are not strangers but it has been a long time between engagements. The comedy star appeared briefly at the desert spa in 1968.

Sidney Gathrid, entertainment director and special events v.p. of Caesars Palace, commented on the new Flip Wilson engagement: "We consider Flip's return to cabarets at Caesars Palace a major thrust for the hotel. He is one of the most innovative, creative talents in show business and we're delighted to have him choose Caesars Palace as the setting for his re-entry into the performing ranks."
