

FESTIVAL THE ARTS '77

Larry Thompson will be guest vocalist with Pride Ltd., a rhythm and blues instrumental group at Festival: the Arts '77 Saturday, June 11th, 6:30 p.m.

Naimah and Saidah of the Al-Amar Dancers will be featured on Sunday, June 12th, 2:30 p.m. at Festival: the Arts '77.

"THIRD GENERATION STEPS" and "PRIDE LIMITED" AMONG "FESTIVAL: THE ARTS '77" PERFORMERS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Art will be "bustin' out all over" at Clark County Community College Friday through Sunday (June 10, 11, 12), where the "Third Generation Steps" and "Pride Limited" will join a host of performing artists in a free summer festival of music, dance and visual arts.

Sponsored by Allied Arts Council and The Associated Students of Community College, the festival theme, Fun for the Family, will be highlighted in an exciting variety of events planned for all age groups.

Vegas will remember Maceo Anderson of the famous "Four Step Brothers", when he introduces the "Third Generation Steps", Ivery Wheeler and Terry Criner, along with special guest Timothy Searcy, former member of the "Guys and Dolls" cast appearing recently at the Aladdin Theatre. The "Steps" will perform on opening night at the festival, Friday, June 10, 8 P.M.

The popular rhythm and blues combo, "Pride Limited", will appear in the variety segment on Saturday, June 11, between 6:30 and 8 P.M. The group will be accompanied by guest vocalist, Larry Thomas and include, Ricky McGhee, the group's vocalist; Micheal Jackson, Lead Guitar; Billy Byrd, Keyboard; Fred Gills, Bass; and Anthony McElroy, Drums.

All indoor performances will be held at the Little Theatre. Outdoor presentations will be made in the Main Stage area. Seating will be available on the college lawn, but festival guests may also bring lawn chairs and blankets for sitting on nearby grassy areas.

A visual art exposition featuring 52 local artists will open during the festival, 7 — 11 P.M., Friday; 10 A.M. — 11 P.M., Saturday and 1 — 7 P.M. Sunday. Also, a multi-media show of the universe will be shown in the planetarium on the Community College campus, times to be announced.

Parents will be thrilled about the free art and theatre workshops planned for children. Three workshops for children will be conducted by Bob Beckman on Saturday and Sunday. Theatre workshops are planned to accommodate 120 children. Pre-registration is required for all sessions and can be arranged by calling Allied Arts Council (384-1208 or 382-1358).

Babysitting and special activities for children, ages 2-6, will be provided in the Child Development Center of the college, during the festival performances.

Robert Cox, Executive Director of Allied Arts Council, is the festival coordinator. Aileen Misch serves as director of the exposition.

OPERATION
INDEPENDENCE
SUMMER PRE-SCHOOL
Phone 647-1790

ORIGINAL DEFECTIVE