QUICK SILVERS MAKE A COMEBACK

The Las Vegas professional soccer team snapped out of its losing streak early this week when they beat the Washington Diplomats 2 to 0. The Quicksilvers, who started the season in the top position and then took a dive to fourth place is now in third place, trailing Los Angeles in first place and Dallas in second place. Although the Quick silvers won by 2 to 0, some of the soccer fans were not impressed with the way the Quicksilvers played. The Quicksilvers had more chances to score, but didn't use them. Ensebio, of Benfica, was wide open when he received a pass from Abel, but kicked the ball wide of the goal.

The Quicksilvers will return Saturday to meet the Bicentennials at the Las Vegas Stadium at 8 p.m. Saturdays game against the Bicentennials is expected to be a big game. There will be fire works at the stadium after the game as pre-celebration for the Fourth of July. This will be the last game for families to attend for the price of one-dollar per adult. Pre-game entertainment includes Marilyn Chambers Celebs vs First Westernettes.

The Las Vegas Department of Parks and Recreation Services hosted City Wide tournaments in Checkers and Pocket Golf at all playground locations.

City Champions in Checkers are as follows:
