THE MOMENTS

One of America's top recording singing groups, The Moments, and Donna Summer, whose "Love To Love You Baby" stirred up a sea of controversy when released, share billing this weekend on Soul Train.

Distinctive in sound, The Moments sing "Come in, Girl," "With You" and "I Don't Want To Go" in the falsetto style that has earned them hit after hit.

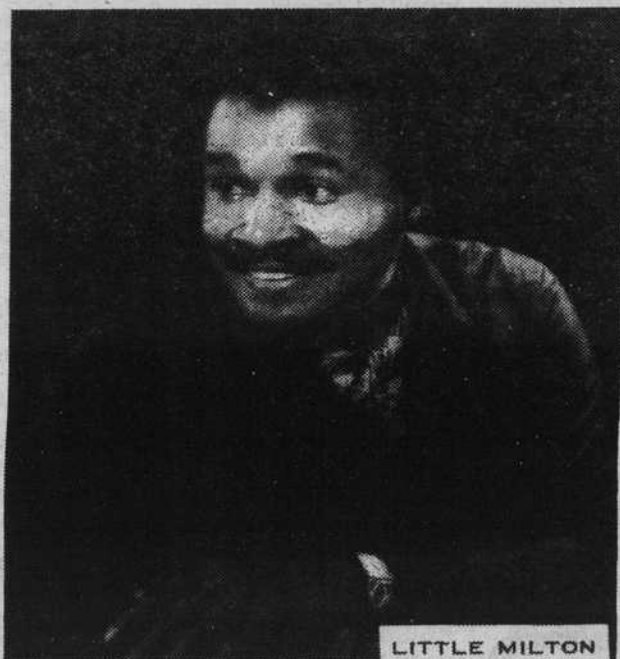

All three--Al Goodman, Harry Ray and Billy Brown--began singing professionally while in their early teens. Equally popular in Europe and Japan, their songs have been recorded in French as well as English.

From her third album, The Four Seasons of Love, Donna Summer entertains with "Spring Sffair" and "Winter Melody." Her latest release demonstrates the power and versatility of her voice which was introduced to the American public in 1975 via "Love to Love You Baby."

Prior to then she had sung in the German production of Hair and had performed and modeled in Europe.

Produced by Don Cornelius, Soul Train is sponsored by Johnson Products Co., manufacturers of hair care products and cosmetics for blacks.
