Gift

of $60,000 to U.N.C.F.

The Procter and Gamble Company gift of $60,000 to the United Negro College Fund is the largest single gift to the State of Ohio's goal of $1.1 million of a national goal of $16 million. This is among the largest corporate gifts of the top 20 in the nation.

Planning the strategy for the City of Cincinnati's share of the state campaign are (seated, left to right) Mr. B.J. Nolan, Supervisor of Community Affairs for Procter and Gamble and UNCF Foundations Chairman; Mr. E. Robert Turner, Vice-President of Federated Department Stores and General Chairman of the UNCF Campaign; Mr. James L. Allen, Associate National Development Director of the UNCF; and (standing) Mr. Larry Kellar, Vice-President of the Kroger Company and UNCF Corporate Chairman.

Two issues ago the Las Vegas VOICE stated that Judge Mullen had more money to come. We estimated between $2400 and $2500 that he still has to come.

The reason for the delay is that some of his close friends still have tickets out and we are suffering a $3000 bad check loss, but I hope to get all of the outstanding money or tickets by Tuesday morning and give him, as well as the public, a breakdown as to how much money we made on the dinner.

I would like to get this over with, because it is beginning to be a hassle for the employees and the reputation and accusation that is being brought against my newspaper.
