UNLV Season Tickets

Excellent season tickets to the University of Nevada, Las Vegas Rebel football games are available now to both UNLV students and the general public, according to Marilyn Workcott, spokesperson for the university athletics department.

Tickets for the general public are selling for $36 a seat, while students with proper UNLV identification have the opportunity to buy them at a reduced rate of $18 each. Because of the special price, however, a two ticket limit is being enforced upon students.

"We are able to accommodate even more student Rebel fans this year with the special rates," says Scott Lorenz, president of the Consolidated Students of the university (CSUN). Approximately 4,000 tickets are selling for the student rate.

Season tickets, which are sold on a first come, first served basis, can be purchased in the UNLV athletics office, located in the physical education plant on Harmon Road from 9 a.m. through 5 p.m. weekdays.

The Rebels open their season as visitors Sept. 10 against the University of Montana at Missoula, but return to the Las Vegas Stadium to play Troy State of Alabama on Sept. 17.

WATER POLO

The City of Las Vegas Parks & Recreation Services will hold its Annual Water Polo Tournament August 12 & 13 at Garside Pool. The Senior Division (ages 15 & up) will play Friday night beginning at 7:00 P.M. and the Junior Division will play Saturday morning beginning at 8:00 A.M.

Parents and public are invited. Admission is free.

WEEK END CAMP

The North Las Vegas Police Department in cooperation with the below listed Businesses and Agencies took 72 children to Camp Bonanza for a fun filled week-end.

The children were from the low income families through-out the North Las Vegas area. The object of the operation was to take the children out of their neighborhoods and introduce them to new friends and show them there was more to do than hang out on the streets.

WOMENS SOFTBALL

Housing Pay Day softball team, sponsored by Housing Authority, took first place in Continental City league with a record of 12 and 1. The team reached great achievement in their first year in City League.

They were lead to victory after victory by their coach Jim McBanks and his assistant coach Ronnie, infield coach Alber Lee and outfield coach James Beets.

Pay Day's are now in Continental B league tournament competing for championship.

Thanks for all the donations which helped to make this possible.

The Housing Authority Pay Day team played two games Wednesday night against the Holiday Lift team.

Needless to say, the Housing Authority Pay Day team won the tournament -- and the championship.

The girls played a good game, but the other team was just no match for them.

CONGRATULATIONS GIRLS, and also the Coaches deserve a big hand. If not for them, the girls would not be in the winners circle.

The scores for the two games played on Wednesday, were: 1st game; 17-4 and the 2nd game; 21-0. HOW ABOUT THAT!

Marina Wed. Night Fight

The Main Event at the Marina on Wed. night was a very one sided match. Javier Flores from Salt Lake City won with a KO, 1 minute 32 seconds of the 3rd round over Gonzales of Mexico. Flores is a hard puncher, but Gonzales punched right back during the first 2 rounds, but just could not keep up in the 3rd.

Preliminary bouts were between: Bout 1 - Omar and Noble with Omar the victor.

Bout 2 was between Nick Perez from Mexico and Joe Rico from Arizona. Nick won on a KO 1 minute and 34 seconds into the second round.

Bout 3 was a good even match between Jose Luis Saberines and Bad News Banes. This was an exciting bout with Saberines winning.

Homecoming Game

Savannah State College Athletic Director Al Frazier announces that the football Homecoming game scheduled for November 12th against Albany State has been switched to November 19th against Knoxville College of Knoxville, Tennessee. Frazier indicated that the 12th date was a little too early but that the 19th isn't. This will be the Tigers last game of the season.

New coach Frank Ellis' Tigers will play 9 games this season. The season starts September 24th against Morehouse in Atlanta.
