

Practical Human Relations at CCCC

Dr. Heinz Rettig, former Communications Director and Psychology Instructor, Clark County Community College, will teach a new college offering, "Practical Human Relations," for the Fall semester beginning Sept. 6th.

The course resulted from an analysis of the human factor needs, with particular emphasis upon the Resort industry, made by Paul Swartz, Director, Business Division, and Raymond Eade, Chairman, Hospitality section. Taped interviews with personnel and industrial relations representatives provide samplings of key problems to which Dr. Rettig will structure the courses.

Prior to his Community College assignments, Rettig taught a course in Business Communications at UNLV following nine years as Nevada State Director, National Conference of Christians and Jews, a human relations assignment.

During his career in Human Relations Training, Rettig has lectured in ten states at management conferences and for related organizations in his field.

Rettig has moderated television "THINK" shows for 14 years in Las Vegas and Reno. Presently his show on Channel 13 TV is aired Sundays at 5:30 P.M.

If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest.
