ARTHRITIS

Las Vegas, Nevada--"The celebration of Women's Equality Day this month reminds us of one area where women get more than their share---arthritis." reports Joan Rist, President of the Nevada Chapter Of The Arthritis Foundation.

Joan said that arthritis causes more pain to more American women than any other disease, and it generally afflicts twice as many women as men.

"While more than 20-million people in the United States are severely afflicted by this crippling disease, nearly 14 million are women, many in their early 20's or younger, Joan noted. "here in Clark County alone, there are 28,000 women and young girls who have arthritis so seriously that they need medical care."

Medical science doesn't know why this disease discriminates against women. But scientists suspect that natural hormonal changes in the female body makes women particularly vulnerable to arthritis. For example, it has been established that arthritis symptoms often increase during menstruation and decrease during pregnancy, only to flare up after delivery.

"Women can't be liberated from arthritis until medical science discovers the cause and cure," said Joan Rist, "and the Arthritis Foundation is supporting such research." In the meantime, qualified physicians can offer women effective treatment to help prevent pain and crippling.

For more information, Joan Rist recommended writin for "Arthritis in Women-A Case of Discrimination." This leaflet is available free from the Nevada Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation, 5030 Paradise Road, A-207, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119.

SCLC Picks Lowery

In an unprecedented action the Southern Christian Leadership Conference picked Rev. Joseph Echols Lowery as President, Walter Fauntroy (Congressman from Washington, d.c. and head of Congressional Black Caucus) as Chairman of the Board, and made Hosea Williams, longtime Civil Rights Worker, the Executive Director at the 20th Convention held in Atlanta, Ga. in the Ebenezer Baptist Church pastored by Martin Luther King, Sr. Maynard Jackson, Atlanta Mayor, welcomed the convention which drew over 2,000 to Atlanta, and Governor Busbee of Georgia added a State welcome. Among the other prominent speakers were Rev. Jesse Jackson of PUSH, Benjamin Hooks of the N.A.A.C.P., Congressman Parren Mitchell of Maryland, Rev. Shuttlesworth of Cincinnati, Representatives of Labor, Women's Rights, Office of Minority Enterprise, etc. Senator Humphrey, who was slated to attend, went into surgery and was unable to attend. The Convention banquet held at the magnificent Sheraton-Biltmore Hotel, brought out over 1,500 people and was the social event of the year. The expected conflict over Hosea Williams Presidential aspiration did not materialize as Hosea Williams immediately seconded the nominations. President Lowery made a fiery speech addressed to Jimmy Carter that "we will send you letters and telegrams, but if they don't work, we will put on our marching shoes." Ralph D. Abernathy was made President-Emeritus for Life and given an office in the National Headquarters.
