FOR

Effective October 1, 1977, the Handicapped and Senior Transportation Program will limit its services to three rides a week per individual. Due to the increased demands and requests for this service on a daily basis, and a limited number of vehicles and drivers, it has become impossible to meet all service requirements for the many individuals in need.

A person may use the service any three days in any one work week plus Saturday and Sunday. There will not be emergency calls to doctor's offices unless the call is initiated by a doctor. All calls must continue to be placed one day in advance, between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m., however, our slots are usually filled by 10 a.m. so please call early. We would like to encourage our riders to use weekend calls as much as possible to go to drug stores, general shopping, etc. The following users will not be affected by this new schedule: Handicapped persons transported to daily employment; Training and Education programs for Handicapped; Nutrition Program, and Opportunity Village.

If you have any questions concerning this service, call 648-5525 and ask for Bill Haynes, Transportation Supervisor.

Dyke Harold Redmond has been appointed as a Scripture distribution representative by the American Bible Society to serve the Scripture needs of black churches.

Mr. Redmond will work out of the Society's Western and Pacific Regional Office located at 1460 Westwood Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif. He will work closely with black pastors and church leaders to supply ABS Scripture publications for their church programs.

Mr. Redmond is a recent graduate from UCLA where he received a Master of Arts degree. As part of his degree program he produced a videotape documentary titled "My Church, My People." It analyzed the central role black churches play in black communities.

Mr. Redmond has attended Emmanuel Church of God in Christ in Los Angeles for many years. An active member, his service has included teaching in the Sunday School and serving as its assistant superintendent, and working in both youth and prison ministries.

The American Bible Society exists to serve all churches through its program of Scripture translation, publication, and distribution. ABS publications, in a variety of versions, are sold at or below the cost of production. They are printed without doctrinal note or comment and are consequently widely used by churches of all denominations.
