Reggie Griffin

Reggie Griffin of "Reggie's Bag" started his career on radio for NAACP.

He then went to channel 10 as an associate producer with Lee Winston, going to channel 3 with Reggie's Bag in July 76.

Reggie was born in Las Vegas, moving around the country with his parents who are in the service.

In April 1976 Reggie had an interview with Jimmy Walker of "Good Times."

James Brown and Muhammad Ali are his idols, with his ambition being to put Las Vegas on the map as producing a singer and talk TV program, with Reggie hosting such a program as Merv Griffith or Johnny Carson.

Starting his career at the age of 20, Reggie is only 22 now. He is also a stand up comedian and has played at the Sahara and at the Fox Trap.

Reggie has started several singing, the first while still in high school. He was the lead singer, but the groups failed to make it as most of the members did not wish to continue, due to too many rehearsals and too grueling a task.

Reggie says "I owe all I have to God." Good luck in all you do, Reggie.

Prayer Poem

*Christ for the world we sing!
The world to Christ we bring
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose
days,
Reclaimed from error's
ways,
Inspired with hope and
praise,
To Christ belong.*

In 1869, Samuel Wolcott wrote the well-known hymn, "Christ For the World We Sing." It speaks of how we are to love one another in Christ.

Assist in the bringing of the world to Christ. Take a

The Manhattan's from Jersey and New York, performed at the Fox Trap last weekend. They played to a packed house, with their band "Little Harlem". The band members are from D.C., Boston, and Jersey.

The group has been together for 14 years, and sing a little of everything; pop, ballads, etc. Their new single is "Let's Dance To A Love Song," and their current album is "It Feels So Good To Be Loved So Bad." A new album will be out the end of October or first of November, with the title as yet unknown.

This versatile group did the score for "Moving", a movie they made in Germany with the "Platters". The entire Manhattan group performed, but "Blue" had a major part, with speaking. The movie made its premiere in Germany 2 weeks ago. Hopefully this movie will soon be in the United States.
