

Great Moments in Gospel

Rev. Sam Roberson recently celebrated a decade in airing Religious music. He started his radio career at KBMI Radio and later he moved to KTOO Radio which was changed to KVOV and then he moved to KLAV - CBS Radio. Rev. Roberson started his radio ministry at a time when there was very little black gospel recording music played on our stations in Las Vegas.

Rev. Sam Roberson ran unsuccessfully in the North Las Vegas City Council race but he has been a successful gospel announcer for the past ten years. He has and still is working without compensation from any radio station. He works with faith and determination. He believes in helping those that are sick, shut in, desponded, bewildered and whatever the conditions are.

The 10th year appreciation started with a banquet at Zion Methodist Church dining room. It brought the gospel music director from KEHV Radio NBC affiliate Brother T.C. Lee and the lady of Gospel Soul Mrs. Juanita Jones from Los Angeles.

Out of the more than 60 contestants competing for the Ms. Great Moments in Gospel queen for the year 77-78 Mrs. Luella Ramsver was chosen. Mrs. Ramsver came to Las Vegas a few years ago from North Carolina. She was the outstanding lead vocalist for the Parkerlett Singer, another recording group. We tip our hats to the Queen Luella Ramsver.

The Sunrise Travel Club presented the queen with a gift certificate.

Listen to Great Moments in Gospel, Sunday morning 6:00 - 7:30 A.M. on CBS Radio KLAV 1230 - For requests dial 731-1230 For prayer call 73212555.
