MATT KELLEY 6TH GRADE CENTER

STEPHANIE HALL

VIRGINIA HALL

Velvet Johnson, student at Matt Kelly, takes time out to study during her lunch hour. That's the way to make the grades!

Trick or Treat! Ms. Mildred Brown's kindergarten class at Matt Kelly, stops to pose for the photographer during their Halloween party.

BEVERLY SMITH, INSTRUCTOR

If you walk down the halls of Matt Kelly Sixth Grade Center one afternoon, you may hear "The O.J.'s", the "Commadors", or "K.C. and the Sunshine Band". It isn't a 'Jam Session' but a modeling class sponsored by the Human Relations Office of the Clark County School District and Marion Bennett Youth Program. The class is held Monday thru Thursday from 3:30 - 4:30 p.m. and is open to all girls 14 years and under. The instructor, Beverly Smith who stresses fashion, posture, good grooming and other social graces.

The girls also enjoy creating group dances in this class.

A special Fashion Show is scheduled for December 14th at Rancho High School. For further information, call Mr. Al Brown, 736-5480 or Joann Jones at 648-7450.

JO MACKEY 6TH GRADE CENTER

SWORN IN - Student Council officers from Jo Mackey Sixth Grade Center recently went to the chambers of Judge Del Guy to be sworn in for this school year. From left, Vice President Stephan Beckert, President Tiffany Close, Judge Guy, Secretary Sonia Church, Treasurer Myriam Santucci and Publicity Chairman Cheryl Culpepper.

IRA J EARL ELEMENTARY

POSITIVE DISCIPLINE - Ira J. Earl Elementary selects a "citizen of the week" for each classroom and each grade level every Friday in a program designed to emphasize the positive nature of good deportment and courtesy. Those selected are pictured in the cafeteria each week and receive special treatment at the "honor table" for lunch. Recent selections for one week were (from left) first grader Omira Rivera, second grader Tracy Bower, fourth grader Cheree Mackelprang, third grader Bryan Cooper and fifth grader Carl Mead.

A "trick" on Mr. Leonard Robinson, principal at Matt Kelly. His office was invaded by little goblins and ghosts for a treat!

The Marion Bennett Youth Program, an out-patient drug treatment center, was recently gifted with a new Zerox machine, compliments of American Business Machines.

The Marion Bennett Youth Program was established in 1976 as an outpatient drug treatment center for Westside youth. Since its inception, the program has expanded into five major service areas. Youth may participate in one or all services which are: Counseling (individual, group, family) drug or non-drug related; tutoring (individual, group), remedial math and reading, G.E.D or college preparatory, Job Development (trainign, survival skills, development and placement); activides (modeling, personal development, arts and crafts, creative dance) and sports (football, basketball, karate, amateur boxing and soccer). At present, the Marion Bennett Youth Program is working with over 1000 youth between the ages of 10 - 20 years in the greater Las Vegas Metropolitan area.
