HODGES, JAMES & SMITH

The suave and sophisticated Spinners join forces with Hodges, James & Smith, a fast-rising female trio, to make this weekend's Soul Train show a memorable treat.

The Spinners spellbind with their renditions of "Heaven on Earth, So Fine," "Baby I Need Your Love" and "Easy Come, Easy Go," carrying on the tradition for fine harmony and craftsmanship that brought forth such hits as "I'll Be Around," "Then Came You," "Games People Play" and, more recently, "Rubberband Man."

Former backup artists Hodges, James &

Smith, now debuting on What's On Your Mind, sing two numbers from the album, "Don't Take Away Your Love" and "Since I Fell For You," a remake of an old rhythm and blues favorite.

Pat Hodges, Denita James and Jessica Smith who combined forces seven years ago, won the most promising vocal group of 1976 award at the First Rhythm & Blues Awards held early in 1977.

Hosted and produced by Don Cornelius, Soul Train is sponsored by Johnson Products Co. of Chicago.

The Commodores, Motown's supergroup, have been named the "Outstanding Rhythm & Blues Artists" of 1977 by Performance Magazine in their 7th Annual Reader's Poll.

This outstanding feat by The Commodores, who recently completed a record breaking three month national tour performing for over 900,000 music lovers, was announced following a polling of the magazine's readers.

Within the last two weeks, The Commodores

COMMODORES been named the number one "R & B Group for Album Sales," the number one "Male Group for R & B," and "The Top Crossover Group" by Record World Magazine, a prestigious music industry trade publication.

Their latest accolade, the "Outstanding Rhythm & Blues Artists of 1977" will be published in Performance Magazine's, an international talent weekly, December 23rd issue.
