ST. JAMES BAPTIST CHURCH

Dear Readers: The St. James Baptist Church of Las Vegas is on the move. God is blessing our church and we have projections of great things.

The Pastor and staff of the church are working untirely to improve our church in all areas and to offer you the finest in worship and praise to God. Two of the most important factors in the success of any organization is togetherness and stewardship. Let me share some thoughts on these two.

The idea of togetherness should be brought into everything that we attempt to do whether in our churches or in public and mainly in the family circles. The lack of oneness has played a large part in holding back the success of many families. With this in mind let us join our hands together and build a strong and lasting unity between family members and church organizations.

The outstanding importances of high quality stewardship must never be minimized. The ability to master life's assignments requires all that has been given to us by God. Our faithfulness in service to God, as well as our fellowman, will prove whether we qualify as a good steward. It is necessary to keep in mind that stewardship was high on the list of prerequisites in the life of Jesus Christ. He was called of God to faithfully carry His Word to a dieing world. The fact that God gave the Word to Jesus, made Jesus a steward of "Good News." His faithfulness in doing the will of God has made it possible for you and I to know God. Just as Jesus was called we also have been called to be good stewards over God's money, God's word, God's church and God's world.

For your reading pleasure you will find recorded in the Bible, the words of our Lord concerning the rewards of faithful and wise stewardship. Please take a moment and read from St. Luke 12:42-44.

You will find that togetherness and stewardship are conquering forces against division and failure. Let us continue our work against failure with these two important tools in our hearts.

Remember that I am praying for you.
