

GETTING IN SHAPE WITH MORNING EXERCISES AT THE NORTH LAS VEGAS RECREATION DEPARTMENT

North Las Vegas Recreation Department is starting a new session of classes and activities. The wide variety of offerings are sure to include something of interest for everyone.

For the Sporty-type, there is Tennis, Trampoline, Volleyball, Racquetball and Basketball. If dance is your thing, there is Belly Dancing, Disco, Square Dancing, Tap, Ballet, Acrobatics and Spanish Dancing.

For the home body, there are seminars in Gardening, Building Your Own Home, Dog Maintenance, Dog Obedience, Spanish Cooking and Sewing. If you are the creative type, there are offerings of Cake Decorating, Macramé, Knitting, Crocheting, Panoramic Sugar Eggs, Oil Painting, Quilting, Stained Glass, Lettering, Crewel, Bunke Embroidery and Puppet Theatre. And for the musician in you, perhaps a class in Piano, Choirster or Guitar will brighten your day.

For the kids there are after-school activities aplenty, including Arts and Crafts, Baton, Dancing, Sports and more. Even Pre-School has openings for four (4) year olds.

Many of the classes are offered at more than one center, so stop at the center nearest you for a look at the latest schedules. Everything starts the week of March 13, so don't delay.
