The Economic Opportunity Board of Clark County Senior Citizens Center was visited by Richard Blue, Management Analyst II with the City of Las Vegas Funds, Coordination and Projects Department. Blue addressed the Senior Citizens Council on his department's programs and how these programs affect the City of Las Vegas. One of the questions which was raised by the Senior Council was that of availability of funds for Transportation needs for seniors to and from the Senior Citizens Center. located at the Westside School, Washington and "D" Streets on the Westside.

Blue stated that he would check into the possibility of providing transportation in the future for the City of Las Vegas Housing Community to and from the Westside Senior Citizens Center.

A new Air Force Recruiting office at 3900 W. Charleston Blvd. opened its doors to the public here on February 9, Technical Sergeant Don Conley, Air Force recruiter, announced today.

The office will be officially opened by Sergeant Conley during ceremonies scheduled for March 13 at 2:00 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

"The Air Force has long been a leader in offering a viable career option to our nation's youth," said Sergeant Conley. "We offer young men and women some of the best technical training available in the world today; training that they can bring back to the community when their Air Force enlistment is completed."

"We feel the Air Force today is truly a great way of life, and is comprised of dedicated people committed to serve their country," Sergeant Conley concluded.

Following the grand opening, refreshments will be served in the new office.
