CON FUNK SHUN

The Four Tops join forces with Con Funk Shun on Soul Train this weekend to produce an hour of listening pleasure.

The legendary Four Tops, whose career has spanned more than two generations of musical trends, sing three numbers from their latest ABC album, "The Show Must Go On" -- the title song, "Love Is A Joy and "I Can't Live Without You."

Known as the "Rock of Gibraltar" in the pop and soul field, the Four Tops made million sellers out of such records as "Baby I Need Lovin'," "I Can't Help Myself," "Reach Out, I'll Be There," "Ain't No Woman

Like The One I Got" and "Catfish."

Con Funk Shun demonstrate their unique blend of funk on "Ffun" and "Confunkshunize Ya," two of the popular tracks from their current "Secrets" album.

Although known as Project Soul during high school days in California, the group changed its name in 1972 and gained exposure playing on the same bill with Graham Central Station, Stevie Wonder, Tower of Power and others.

Soul Train is hosted and produced by Don Cornelius and sponsored by Johnson Products Co. of Chicago.
