

The Easter Message

Composed by:
William (Buddy) H. Redic, Jr.
March 1976

It relieves my heart so very much
When Easter rolls around
You see girls in new dresses, boys in their suits
And that warm joyous feeling is abound

A great thing happened a long time ago
On this peaceful and wonderful day
Angels of the Lord Jesus Christ
Rolled the great stone away

He died on a cross up high on a hill
So that all of his children could live
This one day a year seems like so little Almost too little to give

To the man who died to save the world
From death and destruction and strife
Then you look at the world and the people today
Do they know the true value of life?

He died and arose, he's back on the throne
And he's watching both you and me
Don't let it be said that he died in vain
There's a lot we can do, you see

So when you look at the flowers or play in the sun
It is promised to you it may seem
But remember the Saviour, he made it happen
May he ever reign Supreme

Anheuser-Busch marketing executive Henry H. Brown (right) poses with NAACP executive director Benjamin L. Hooks in St. Louis at a special awards luncheon of the St. Louis chapter of the NAACP. Brown accepted an award from the chapter to Anheuser-Busch in recognition of the company's contributions to the 1977 national convention of the NAACP. Brown is director of western area marketing development for Anheuser-Busch.

Prayer Poem

The hymn, "Joy To The World" is a hymn for all seasons. It was written by Isaac Watts in 1719 as a part of a long poetic piece entitled "The Messiah's Coming and Kingdom." The hymn reminds us well of the daily need and rewards of rejoicing.

Joy to the world! The Lord is come;

*Let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room,
And heaven and nature sing.*

Joy to the world! The Savior reigns;

*Let men their songs employ,
While fields and floods,
rocks, hills and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.*

No more let sings and

*sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.*

*He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.*

Not written originally as a Christmas hymn, these words were designed as a reminder of the joy of God's continual re-entry into our lives. We are to receive the "Good News" and the fact of Christ's coming into His world...and into our lives...to reign in righteousness. Hence we rejoice saying, Joy to the world!
