

School District Human Relations Office Community News

AL BROWN
Human Relations,
Coordinator
736-5480

Yolanda Brooks, Miss Black Teenage Nevada, possess a talent for communicating with young people regardless of their Ethnic background. As pictured above, she is giving the young people a few tips.

Clark County School District Human Relations Office helped Leon Spinks become champ. Pictured giving their total support are Left: Al Brown, Human Relations Coordinator, two students, KVOV Disc Jockey "Don Juan", Yolanda Brooks, Miss Black Teenage Nevada and Little Cherie Brown plays "peek-a-boo" with the champ.

Two lovely ladies of Las Vegas display the trophy received by Yolanda Brooks, Miss Black Teenage Nevada, right; and Verdia Turner, left; Executive Secretary Convention Center and Assistant State Director of the Pageant.

"Don Juan" and Al Brown look on as our own celebrity, Yolanda Brooks, Miss Black Teenage Nevada give champ Leon Spinks the privilege of getting that lucky kiss that led him to a victory.

Don Juan, Leon Spinks, Yolanda Brooks, Mike Spinks, Al Brown and little Cherie Brown show that the Spinks Brothers are number one.

Math is just another pass time with Miss Black Teenage Nevada, Yolanda Brooks as her teacher assists her in solving an equation.

MISS YOLANDA BROOKS

MISS BLACK TEENAGER

Young and beautiful Yolanda Brooks of Las Vegas, a Valley High School Senior, not only knows what she wants out of life, she knows where to get it, at least the place to start.

Yolanda, Miss Black Teenager, said she plans to major in political science and minor in psychology, as she plans to become a lawyer. She said, "I want to go to Spelman University in Atlanta, Ga., because Blacks in Atlanta seem to be more advanced. This would be a great opportunity for me to reach my goal in life."

The list of accomplishments for a 16 year old girl is very impressive. In order to be crowned Miss Black Teenager, she beat out 16 other girls with her poise, personality, talent, creative expression and projection. She also is president of the Nevada Association of Student Council (NASC), being voted into this position in April by delegates at the annual conference of the NASC, held in Marlboro, Mass. During the summer months she works at the Golden Gate Casino as a busing person.

Yolanda, daughter of School Board Trustee Virginia Brewster, is also student body coordinator. She was appointed by the administration at Valley to promote enthusiasm among the student body.

She is also a song leader, which is a cheerleader who moves to the beat of the band.

Request for Miss Black Teenage Nevada to appear on talk shows are numerous. Yolanda Brooks and Al Brown, State Director express their views on a local talk show.