JOHNNY MATHIS & DENIECE WILLIAMS

All time great, Johnny Mathis, combines his special brand of musical magic with that of Deniece Williams, versatile singer and songwriter.

Johnny solos on "How Deep Is Your Love" and "Till Love Touches Your Heart" and both artists join together on "Too Much, Too Late" and "Emotion."

Deniece shows her creative talents singing her composition, "God Is Amazing," which appears on her second album, "Songbird," produced by Maurice White of Earth, Wind and Fire.

Deniece gained national attention as a member of Stevie Wonder's backup group, Wonder-love, who featured her compositions "Free," "Baby Open The Door" and "Cause You Love Me Baby" while on tour. Since then she's much sought after as a performer as well as a songwriter.

Mathis, the world's second most successful record seller, Frank Sinatra is first, has had one album, "Johnny Greatest Hits," on Billboard's best-selling charts for over nine years. From his first, "Wonderful, Wonderful," in 1957 he has chalked up international fame and 18 gold albums.

Soul Train is produced by Don Cornelius and sponsored by Johnson products Co.
