MANDRILL

The 5th Dimension and Mandrill, noted for exciting sounds and beautiful music, are the center of attention on Soul Train this weekend, television's weekly musical showcase.

The 5th Dimension now under contract with Motown Records, are fresh and spontaneous on "Your're The Reason I Feel Like Dancing," "We Could Fly" and "Star Dancing."

Florence LaRue Gordon and Lamonte McLemore, original members of the group, have added Danny Miller Beard, an experienced actor as well as a singer, Michel Bell and most recently, Terri Bryant, to give the 5th Dimension a "new dimension."

The universal sound of Mandrill is highlighted in their renditions of "Can You Get It" and "Happy Beat." The Panamanian Wilson brothers, Carlos, Louis, Ric and Wilfredo, are the core of Mandrill which features a combination of Latin, jazz, Afro, Caribbean and basic street funk. Other members are Claude "Coffee" Cave, keyboards, Neftali Santiago, drums, and Juaquin Jessup, lead guitar.

Soul Train is produced by Don Cornelius, show host, and sponsored by Johnson Products Co. of Chicago.
