

AL BROWN
Human Relations,
Coordinator
736-5480

School District Human Relations Office Community News

Spank Spank Contestants: Robert O. Gibson, were one of the Junior High School, who participated in the Spank contest, sponsored by KVOV Radio. From Gibson, we had many interested students. The dance was held Thursday April 13th. For the judges, it was very difficult to make a final selection of the winners. We had eight students who participated in the finals, and they were all terrific. The first place winners went on to Rancho, and competed in the grand finals.

Robert O. Gibson Jr. High

Teresa Macklin and Lonnie James, first place winners.

Karen Bosley and Earl Ellis, first runner up.

Aleshi Smith and Dale Poop took second.

Janie Lewis and Gorge Taylor were the third place winners.

Most engergetic group of students, sitting in center is Mrs. Turner, Human Relation Advisor at Gibson.

The Human Relation Department were proud to display an art exhibit at the Southern Nevada Youth Fair. On display were approximately thirty drawings, from Senior and Junior high schools throughout the area. From the thirty pictures, we recieved seven Grand Reserve Champions ribbons, and eleven blue ribbons.

Schools participating, in the exhibit, were Las Vegas High, who received five Grand Reserve Champion ribbons. Clark, Eldorado, Rancho, K. O. Knudson, Woodbury, Brinley, Hyde Park, Von Tobel, and Robert O. Gibson.

Lincoln Elementary

Ebon is a modern dance group. The group of eleven girls, ranging from eight to eleven in age. Ebon has been together for approximately three months. They have performed at our school, Can Can Hop, an activity in which can goods were raised and given to needy familes in the community. The group entered into the Southern Nevada Youth Fair. The group was awarded first place in the character group section, for ages nine through twelve. They also were awarded Reserve Champions. In this section they were competing against more than fifty contestants. Ebon is short for Ebony, meaning dark or Black in color. Ebon is a hard working, energetic, together black young ladies, under the supervision of their instructor David R. Ross. The members of this group are: Casandra Davis, Gabriel Dix, Katina Eagle, Paula Henderson, Felicia McMillian, Sharlaski Moore, Kim Ransom, Jaurita Stallworth, Donna Thomas, Swazine Washington and Karen Weaver. All dance routines are choreographed by the group and Mr. Roll. choreographed by the group and Mr. Ross. The girls presently have routines off "To Hot To Trot" by the Commadores, and Flashlight" by the Parliments. Good luck to all of the girls.

