

Prayer Poem

Joseph Henry Gilmore (1834-1918) was a Baptist minister. He wrote the famed hymn of trust, "He Leadeth Me" in connection with a sermon on Psalm 23 at the First Baptist Church in Philadelphia.

Gilmore's wife quietly had the hymn published; and Gilmore himself was surprised three years later upon hearing it sung in the Second Baptist Church, Rochester. The words read:

*"He leadeth me! O blessed thought!
O words with heavenly comfort fraught!
Whate'er I do, where'er I be,
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.
Sometimes mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom,
By waters still, o'er troubled sea,
Still 'tis His hand that leadeth me.*

*And when my task on earth is done,
When, by thy grace, the victory's won,
Ee'n death's cold wave I will not flee,
Since God through Jordan leadeth me."*
