

JACK SCHOFIELD, CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR, GOT IT TOGETHER

Rusco, Elmer R.

Jack Schofield is no newcomer to our community. Jack has been teaching our children and working with all youth for the last 20 years. It is important to have a man that understands our problems. A man that has been with us knows that elimination of plea bargaining would hurt black man in today's system of justice. Jack Schofield is the kind of man that we can talk to on a personal basis about our problems.

The Mills Brothers and Jack Schofield, candidate for governor, got together recently and reminisced about earlier days in Las Vegas and how it's changed over the last 25 years. "We've come a long way on rights," they agreed, "but there's a long way yet to go."

Eric, (as called by his friends and family), has a minor role in the movie now playing at the Cinnemas 1-2-3 Downtown entitled "PRETTY BABY" starring Brookie Shields and a few other stars.

Von Eric Thomas was born in New Orleans, Louisiana in March, 1966. He moved to Las Vegas, Nevada in September, 1977. He presently resides at 816 North Carter, apartment #3, in our city. He is attending the Mabel Hoggard Elementary School.

The old cliché, being in the right place at the right time, contributes to Eric's being discovered by the movie industry. While living in New Orleans with foster parents, a neighbor who is an agent with the Screen Actors Guild requested that his parents let her take Eric along with four other children to try out for a part in an upcoming movie. The agent contributes Eric's smile and activeness to her being interested in him. Needless to say Eric won out over the rest of the kids and landed the part in the movie.

Eric's future looks very bright according to his uncle and aunt Mr. & Mrs. Almond Imes. They have already contacted the Screen Actors Guild in Los Angeles who intends to find Eric an agent on the West Coast and start preparing him for future movie roles and television commercials.

The Las Vegas VOICE salutes Von Eric Thomas and wishes him much success in a future that looks very bright.
