

Michael Gibson, the Nevada State Spelling Bee champion, receives congratulations and a "Nevada, Bet on it" pin from Governor Mike O'Callaghan. Michael will be taking pins and gold coins to Washington D.C. to exchange with other contestants when he represents Nevada in the National Spelling Bee finals June 5th-9th. Also pictured is Michael's father, Leon Gibson.

LIW Workshop

The Operation Life Community Development Corporation's Committee of Low-Income Women is sponsoring an all-day workshop on Welfare reform. The workshop will be held Friday, June 2, from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. at the Silver Nugget in North Las Vegas. There will be a five dollar registration for the workshop which will include a buffet lunch. Child care will be provided for children three to five years old.

Welfare Reform and Employment opportunities in the city will be some of the topics discussed by Ms. Virginia Brester from Nevada State Consumer Affairs, Ms. Jan Paluzzi of the State Welfare Department, Mrs. Rachel Miller of the National Clients Council and the regional chairperson for Region 8, and Ms. Essie Henderson, Coordinator of the Committee of Low Income Women. The presentations will be followed by a question/answer session. For further information on the workshop call 648-0012.
