

Bible Verses

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them.

That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

And the Lord said, My spirit shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh; yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

And God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Ja'-pheth.

The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

It was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

I come to you in the name of the Lord Jesus. Holy peace to all people. We put forth our hand and prayer to God, that you might be reminded of things you know and have heard of:

"The Promises of Jesus"

We that love the Lord, believe and stake our lives on these promises knowing that the promises of God stands sure because God cannot lie. Tit. I: 1, 2, 3. The body of Jesus was without sin, guile, or any such thing. He showed the people, and are still showing them great miracles. The word of the Lord is right and all his works are done in truth, because he himself is truth.

Every promise made by Jesus, carries a condition which we must meet. He promises eternal life to those who love him and keep his commandment. He has done, and will do just what he says. He promises to fill our every need even our very desire but we must have faith and earnestly contend for the thing we so desire. He promises you long life in this present world if you honor your father and mother. Again he promises if you endure until the end he will give you a crown of life. He also said, he that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. You see there is always something for us to do, to fulfill our part of the bargain. He told his disciples to go preach the gospel to all nations and he would be with them even unto the end of the world.

Now if you seek a Godly life, remember that persecution have already been promised. If you know you are living a Godly life you already know that you are heir to the Kingdom of God. Let us remember that we do not have to grieve or suffer for anything, he told us how to get what we wanted. He said ask and it shall be given, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you, Matt. 7:7. Now then you must know how to ask, seek, and knock. Never but never ask for anything to consume upon your flesh if you ask for something let not that something belong to your neighbor or something to make your neighbor jealous let not vanity be the cause of your asking, James 4:3. You should also forgive everyone and anyone that you think have done you an injustice or if you owe anyone an apology you should pay all your vows before you pray, so that your petition be not hindered and this is our end of the treaty and peace pack we have with Jesus.

Jesus said: If you ask anything in my name I will do it, St John 14:3, 14. So let us stay in Jesus and his word in us that we may keep our part of the bargain.

May the blessings of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ be upon you now and for evermore, Amen.

WORDS OF LIFE

Biblical Inspiration For The Week

*For God has...given us the spirit...of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."
—II Timothy 1:7*

How many (or manifold) will. are God's gifts! It was the prophet Elisha who reminds us all that, when we feel alone and defenseless, we are still surrounded by the armies of angels and by the chariots of fire. God's gifts come in torrents!

2. We have the gift of power. Hence we can say, "I can do all things..." God's power enables us to do all things consistent with God's will. 3. We have the gift of love. Hence we have life's greatest gift. God is love, so St. John tells us. To have love is to have no less than God.

4. God has given us a sound mind. Use it! But first develop it through the discipline of study and the arch-discipline of prayer.

What wonderful gifts has God given us!
