

Bible Verses

AND the Lord said unto Noah, the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth.

In the six hundredth year of seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Ja'-pheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him; and the LORD shut him in.

And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth; and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

Church Of The Living God

We come to you in the Holy name of Jesus. Peace be unto you and yours. This day the scripture has said, "Thou shalt not Covet" -- So, we focus on the subject: "The results of Covetousness" Are we covering up our covetousness? Which is an evil spirit that may creep in if we are not watchful unto prayer, by letting our conversation lean toward such a trend. Sometimes a person may say to another, I envy you of this, or that. And if the first person is telling the truth, then he have sinned. If he is not telling the truth then he have sinned by lying. But, if a person stays prayful, there will be no room for jokes and jesting. Friends and brothers, let us strive to content ourselves with such things as we have and we will not fulfill the lust of the flesh. Jesus promises never to leave or forsake us. He will keep us in perfect peace of mind if we let our mind stay on him we will not go a-whoring after things of the world which we did when we were in sin. Now we have pulled off the deeds of the old man Satan, and put on the new man and we do walk in the newness of life, such as: Mercy, Kindness, Humbleness, Meekness, long suffering, and forgiving one another with no provisions attached. Our subject is taken from the tenth of the Ten Commandments which was and is, our school master to bring us to Christ. And now since we have met and received him (Jesus), all of the laws and commandments of the Old Testament are written on the tables of our hearts in one word "love" Jesus gave us two commandments namely these, found in Matt. 22:38, 39. In which case he put the Ten Commandments into the two in which all is condensed. You can understand this fully if the God Spirit is ruling in your heart, only then can you love God with your whole heart and your neighbor as yourself. To be able to do these you must be born again, in order to have this power and this is not conversion only. Not withstanding you must be first converted before you can be born again of the Spirit with fire. Converted means a change of mind or be convinced. Most all sinners believe there is a God which made all things and they do accept this fact, but they just keep on sinning. The Black man accepted the slave master but he still wanted to be free and he was never persuaded to want to be a slave to accept Christ does not mean you really want him or to obey him to be born again is to have all the commandments rolled up in one word "LOVE".

WORDS OF LIFE

Biblical Inspiration

For The Week

"Find rest."—Matthew 11:29

- All Need Rest. Even the Lord of the universe rested. We are told that He worked on creation for six periods or days and that then God rested on the seventh period or day. If God needs rest, are we any more durable than God?
- Not Resting Is Unnatural. The failure to rest regularly puts us out of tune with the cosmos and out of tune with nature. Nature hibernates. It has regular short resting periods; and then it finds longer rest on a regular basis. If you are constantly pushing and plugging every day, what you are doing is unnatural.
- Rest Can Be Found. The Scriptures in many places admonish us to "find rest." This suggests that rest must be found and that it can be found. Perhaps it is the very retreat from our relentless task which will give us the strength to complete the task itself. It is incumbent—imperative!—upon all of us...that we "find rest."
