

YOU AND THE STARS

by Sylvia Hairston

June 22-30

FOCUS ON SOCIAL AND RECREATION

ARIES — March 21-April 20
Your June aspects are in harmony with the festive mood usually associated with this month. Mercury's aspects around mid-month add impetus to your area of communication. You may get bitten by the travel bug, but Jupiter in your home sector indicates that home is definitely the place to be during this period. Outside recreation has less to offer now, and may even stir up tension where a social group you may be affiliated with is involved.

TAURUS — April 21-May 21
There is a general atmosphere of excitement in your social sphere that may make you Bull signs want to kick up your heels. You may be the host of some gala social pastimes during this period, possibly a birthday celebration or wedding. Good financial prospects and your good personality rays will inspire you to entertain lavishly whatever the occasion. A journey near month's end is in the picture. Jupiter in this area accents the travel theme.

GEMINI — May 22-June 21
An alignment of planets predicts an active social scene during this period. Activity in this area indicates advantage in attracting social popularity. Mercury, your planetary ruler, makes many favorable aspects this month, stimulating your interests in many areas. Venus, supporting your area of income along with the help of Jupiter (the money planet), may make you take risks in speculation and gambling as well as spending too much time with superficial people. It looks as though the social and travel agenda includes a short trip during this period.

CANCER—June 22-July 23
HAPPY BIRTHDAY!
Plan all important activity for the dates following your birthday period when you can prepare for big things after that date. Social excitement, romance and finances flourish. We see the build-up of admiration for you in the social area. You may find that you have more friends than you realized when it comes time to celebrate your birthday. Indications are that the most congeniality will be in your immediate environment. Whatever the situation you will be having fun this month with the people with whom you are most familiar.

LEO—July 24-August 23
You may be the recipient of many invitations at this time. The Sun entering your sector of friendship and communication indicates there will be many short trips; one with a friend or your mate can be exciting; if related to business, a confidential agreement may turn out to be beneficial to all. Your spirits should be riding high in general, enabling you to project happiness, goodwill, generosity and optimism. Allow yourself frequent periods of time off to enjoy life.

VIRGO — August 24-September 23
Venus is accenting your sector of social and friendship interests during this period. Your social calendar should not be empty. Added emphasis stems from the presence of mighty Jupiter in this sector all month. Friendships are a special source of pleasure during this period. Mars in your personality sector now helps you to overcome your usual shy and reserved approach and you are able to project yourself in a dynamic way during this period.

LIBRA — September 24-October 23
This month may go down in your memory as the most stimulating period of the year. Some of you may get an early start on your vacation this year, as Mercury (the winged messenger) travels through your travel sector

now. Social life and group activity are accelerated after mid-month when beautiful Venus moves into your social sphere. Especially good aspects in this area near the end of this month give added popularity. Your home is likely to be an unusual source of pleasure during this period.

SCORPIO—October 24-November 22
Summer is always a special time for Scorpios. You enjoy the warm weather and beaches. A warmly pleasant atmosphere should prevail for most of this period. You are in a fine personality phase and attention to your magnetism will be noticed just about wherever you go now. Do not waste this period by being petty. Settle any disagreements among family or friends and follow up on social activity. A wedding or some other festive occasion involving family may be the highlight of the month for your social agenda.

SAGITTARIUS—November 23-December 21
You are surrounded by hobbies or avocations, creative expression and expanded social life during this period. Your Archer personality is shining all over the place and people react to your kind of enthusiasm as it is catching and irresistible. You may play a major role in a big and posh event during this period. Sagit parents will enjoy activity involving their offspring. Sports and some speculation are also accented for your pleasures during this period.

CAPRICORN — December 22-January 20
Socializing from your home base is indicated for you at this time. Entertaining influential visitors is important to you now for your long range activity and association as Mercury in your sector of partnerships opens channels of communication. Your biggest social activity is indicated in the business realm. Even if you are only an auxiliary principal, you will play an active part and be caught up in the excitement of the big event of the month. You are in a position of power and want others to see it.

AQUARIUS — January 21-February 19
There will be much travel and communication during this period: meetings, reunions and events in which you play a significant role. Enhanced social life, group projects and public ventures create a lot of activity. You win popularity and acceptance that can swell your ego. One of the centers of social activity is likely to be your own home base, destined to play an important role in boosting future goals. Success in business and pleasure activity may place you in a new role in your community.

PISCES — February 20th-March 20
